IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.33542 of 2008
DEVKINANDAN SINGH
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

3. 07.11.2008 Heard the learned Counsel for the petitioner and the learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner apprehends arrest in a Police case registered originally under Sections 307 and other provisions of the Penal Code to which Section 302 was added subsequently.

The petitioner is named as one of the several co-accuseds who confined the deceased in a room and assaulted him mercilessly when he was rescued from the room in bleeding condition when the police came.

The impugned order of rejection notices that the doctor found head injury and excessive bleeding caused by hard and blunt object. That the allegations against the petitioner may be omnibus as a member of the mob is an aspect tobe considered in an application for regular bail.

This application is rejected.
